HOW TO GET THERE

Public Transport from Tirana

Public Transportation from Saranda

One bus/day at 6 am

2 hours drive

Price 4 eur.

Pick up Camping Car 70 eur (1 hour drive).

FROM CORFU (Greece) TO SARANDA

Take a ferry from the main port in Corfu town, (the port is a 10-minute taxi ride from Corfu airport). There is at least one passenger ferry per day (the Kaliope).The ferry journey takes 1 hour and 40 minutes. There is also a hydrofoil service operated by Petrakis Lines (the Flying Dolphin), which takes 30 minutes. Check times at the port before planning your journey. In July 2010 three return departures from Corfu were available. You should be at the port in good time to allow for changes in departure time, allowing at least 20 minutes prior to embarkation for customs formalities. Remember that Greek time is 2 hours ahead of UK time and Albania is only 1 hour ahead.

TICKETS are bought from the ticket office on the quayside. A single ticket costs approx. €19. Tickets are valid only for the ferry for which they were bought - therefore it may be advisable to buy your return ticket separately so that you can choose your preferred return time and ferry. Your passport will be retained by the ferry Captain for the duration of the voyage in order to prepare your documents and visa for the Albanian port officials. At Saranda, customs officials board the ferry for passport control. Your passport will be stamped and returned to you.

Mother Theresa International Airport

All international arrivals enter through Mother Theresa International Airport, located 17 km northwest of Tirana.

Linkage with the city is provided through a shuttle bus service, the Tirana Rinas Express, running between Skanderbeg Square and Mother Theresa Airport. Shuttle buses depart every hour ,with an approximate cost of 2 euros. Taxi service available at all times, taxi fares mounting to approximately 20 euros.
